

One night only!

Local Bay Windows columnist, memoirist, and NPR commentator

Judah Leblang

Presents his humorous one-man show about growing older gracefully:

One Man's Journey to Adulthood

The show includes the following:

Bad dates, unrequited love, hearing loss, the heartbreak of being a fan of bad (Cleveland) sports teams, the highs and lows of middle age, illness, wellness and ultimately—hope.

One single gay Jewish man's search for love and connection, while dealing with times when 'man planned and God laughed.'

Convenient to Orange Line T—Chinatown/Tufts
Medical stations

Friday October 14 at 7:30 PM

HI (Hostel International) Boston
19 Stuart Street
Boston, MA 02116

Suggested donation $10 at the door
Hostel guests $5/pay what you can